

Maison

Maison metro style tiles are truly elegant with their light crackle finish. These neutral wall tiles are lifted by the fine lines running through the translucent glazes. These tiles are an easy choice for a period look or contemporary space. Because each of the colours are quiet neutrals, this series is easy to pair with other tiles and finishes. The Maison metro shape is part of a larger range of size and textured options. Maison is also one of our ranges where the tiles, borders and skirting pieces have a full set of glazed edge details. As a result there is no need to finish these tiles with a metal or plastic trim.
