

Melange

Melange brick shaped tiles are a classic tile choice for the kitchen or bathroom wall. This collection of off white tiles is an easy way of completing a traditional look. Because Melange brick glazes are pale colour mixes with shades of each colour making a variant look, they often appear as white until fitted. These elegant small wall tiles have a wonderfully hand made look. The soft edges together with the variant colours can easily compliment a period scheme. Melange is one of our ranges that has glazed edge pieces. These are perfect for finishing a niche in the shower without the need for a plastic or metal tile trim.
