

Materia Viva

Materia Viva hexagons carry a bold Zebrano veneer design. These tiles need a little space to read well but that can also be a little space. These hexagons make a practical and useful floor covering in small spaces. The vibrant markings and shape of the tiles confuse the eye and prevent a negative assessment of available space. Because of this effect, Materia Viva is a go to choice for dressing the smallest room in the house. This series has a strong mid century influence. Pair with strong stone or terrazzo effects to keep a mid century look. In contrast pair with deep glossy ceramics for a dark moody look in the bathroom or kitchen.
