

Epoque

Epoque textured tiles are one of our specialist tile ranges. These glazed ceramic panels stand upright along the lower part of the wall. As a result they form an alternative to tongue and groove half timbering. Because there are dado and skirting pieces sharing the same glazes, this range is a complete look. Epoque has three panel patterns from the formal Medici to the elegant thistle of Ermitage. Finally, Belvedere offers a thoroughly modern deco arched line. Epoque works beautifully with wood effect floor tiles to create a contemporary classic look. On the other hand, pair Epoque textured tiles with a elegant marble effect for a more opulent effect.
