

Imprint

Imprint has a wonderfully warm finish thanks to the fine rows of texture dressing each tile. Small impressions line up across the surface of each tile that create a finish with a fabric like look. These little textured tiles gather together to make a truly beautiful wall covering. Imprint has a select set of matt neutral glazes that can easily pair with other materials. The linear details in the surface of these tiles has a hand applied look. Because of this they lend themselves to pairing with natural finished and wood effect porcelain tiles. Alternatively contrast the irregular surface with flat plain tiles to focus on Imprint as a quiet feature.
